

SALISBURY ON HOME RULE.

DENONCING THE PREMIER'S PROPOSALS.

THOUSANDS AT THE MEETING OF THE LOYAL PATRIOTIC UNION.

LONDON, April 14.—The approaches to the Opera House, where the meeting of the Loyal Patriotic Union was held to-night to denounce Mr. Gladstone's Home Rule scheme, were besieged by crowds of people and the roadways were blocked hours before the time announced for the beginning of the proceedings. Upwards of 400 prominent Orangemen from Belfast and Liverpool came to London to attend the meeting. The utmost excitement prevailed among the crowd. Thousands were unable to enter the house. The stage was decorated with Union Jacks and armorial shields with a union crown in the center. Lord Hartington, Lord Salisbury and Lord Randolph Churchill were received with enthusiastic cheering. Some one in the audience called for cheers for the Queen and for the British Empire and Gladstone. The audience sang "The Duke and the Duke of Devonshire," in which the writers denounce the Home Rule bill, saying it would be a subject of the most powerful moral support. I remain, dear worshipful Mayor, faithfully yours, W. E. GLADSTONE.

absent from the Loyalist meeting last evening, we believe he expressed cordial sympathy with its object.

MR. GLADSTONE TO THE MAYOR OF BOSTON.

HE SAYS THAT AMERICAN OPINION AFFORDS GREAT BRITAIN MORAL SUPPORT.

LONDON, April 14.—Mr. Gladstone has sent the following reply to the congratulatory cable dispatch received by him last Monday from the Mayor of Boston: I have received your telegram. I thank you for your courtesy in informing me of the proceedings of the meeting held in Boston on Monday last in relation to the subject of the proposed Home Rule for Ireland. I feel that American opinion, allied as it is with a regard and affection for the old country, affords Great Britain a powerful moral support. I remain, dear worshipful Mayor, faithfully yours, W. E. GLADSTONE.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY LEGISLATIVE BODIES IN OHIO AND RHODE ISLAND.

OHIO, April 14 (Special).—The Ohio General Assembly has been the first in America to commend Gladstone's measure of relief for Ireland. A resolution with a long preamble was introduced by John Haley, of Cleveland, to-day and passed unanimously. The Governor is authorized to send certified copies to the President of the United States and to the President of the British Empire.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 14.—The following resolutions were passed by the House of Representatives to-day:

Resolved, That the Right Hon. W. E. Gladstone, Prime Minister of Great Britain, has announced his intention of introducing a bill granting Home Rule to Ireland, therefore, the Senate concurring herein, be it enacted, That the Legislature of Rhode Island congratulate Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Farnell upon the great step which has been taken;

Resolved, That we do hereby tender them our best wishes for their success.

Resolved, That the Secretary of State be instructed to transmit copies of these resolutions to Messrs. Gladstone and Farnell.

The resolutions were strongly opposed by one member and unobtainable interference with a peaceful work and calculated to bring the State into contempt with all civilized Nations. Mr. Hopkins, who opposed the resolutions, is a descendant of Stephen Hopkins, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

Resolved, That the Prime Minister of England has proposed that the House of Commons should be divided into two parts, the one to be called the House of Representatives and the other the House of Lords.

Resolved, That the Republican Club of the City of New York, in the name of the Prime Minister as a harbinger of the new era, should be congratulated for his boldness and that this club is in hearty sympathy with the movement.

EIGHT BOYCOTTERS CAUGHT.

ARRESTED FOR ANNOYING MRS. GRAY.

FOUR FINED AND FOUR BAILED—LETTERS AND BUSINESS.

The boycott of Mrs. Gray's bakery, at No. 508 Hudson-st., by the Bakers' Union No. 1, reached an interesting crisis yesterday. The "sandwich" men who have paraded so indefinitely for the last nine days have lost their vocation, and the remarkable placards which they once had so much difficulty in distributing are now at a premium as curiosities. A huge pile of them lies behind the railing at the Third Precinct Police Station, and the boycotting placards which served as chest protectors last against the wall in ingenious protest against the "franny of Gray." The police authorities, in fact, have taken a hand in the amusement and have boycotted the boycotters.

It appears that Mrs. Gray, although she did not admit it yesterday, had paid a visit to District-Attorney Martin along with Police Captain Copeland to see what could be done to stop the boycott. Mrs. Gray, Mr. Martin was too busy with the Aldermanic implements to be seen, and the matter stumbled until yesterday morning. Then a representative of the Evening Post went up to Mrs. Gray's bakery to say that that paper would undertake a criminal prosecution of the boycotters without expense to her, if she would permit it.

Mrs. Gray, of course, consented and arrangements were made to hold her for a long time.
